Legal Aid: Critical Help for Critical Moments

2010-2011

MISSION STATEMENT

MidPenn Legal Services is a non-profit, public interest law firm dedicated to providing equal access to justice and high quality civil legal services to low-income residents and survivors of domestic violence in 18 counties in Central Pennsylvania.

Executive Director's Message

This has been a very interesting year at MidPenn, between tornadoes, earthquakes, hurricanes, floods, funding uncertainties and a growing number of Central Pennsylvanians who are living at or below the poverty level (352,079), we have all been kept quite busy.

As you read this report, you will see stories that show our continued commitment to providing high-quality legal services to low-income individuals within our 18 county region. We have always recognized that for many of those who contact us, we are the last hope, a place to go when there is nowhere else to turn; a place where they can find a voice to speak and a listening ear. A place where they find advocates who will advise, represent, counsel and sometimes console them.

Through our advocacy, families are successfully protected from violent situations in their homes; individuals with disabilities are granted benefits; families are able to save their homes and essential property; communities are educated on legal issues affecting their lives; and parents and children are able to obtain an orderly resolution to their family law matters.

At this time of increased need, fewer resources and more funding challenges on the horizon, we work hard to be a good steward of the dollars that we receive. We recognize that without the support of our many funders, and folks like you, we wouldn't be the light in the community to those who desperately need access to the legal system. Thank all of you for your support and confidence in the work that we do to improve the lives of those families that are struggling to get by.

Legal Aid: Critical Help for Critical Moments

Fighting for Her Children and Her Dignity

He'd Do Anything To Get Over On Her

The father of Tanaya's children stole their dog, Coco, breaking the hearts of their little girls. He did worse.

Tanaya Thomas is a single mom struggling to be free from intimidation and fear. She was separated from the father of her two young children, Grace (4) and Lucy (3). But he was going to make her pay for it. She had always done most of the parenting but he sought custody of the kids, just to get at her. He wouldn't return them after a visit. Tanaya could only see them if she took him back.

She was fearful for good reason. When she did get her kids back, he terrorized her house. "He hit me in front of the children. I saw them run from their own father. He broke their toys." He destroyed her clothing. He stole Coco, their beloved dog, which they never saw again. "The kids kept asking me what happened to Coco."

"MidPenn helped me get a PFA order and then we won the custody case, too. I feel so much freer now," says Tanaya. The York County mom believes her children are safe but admits that she still looks over her shoulder when she goes outside.

The attorney that represented Tanaya was hired through a fundraising effort by York Business Leaders and the York County Bar Foundation. Similar campaigns in Lancaster County (with the Lancaster Bar Foundation) and in Dauphin County (with the Dauphin County Bar Foundation) have resulted in the hiring of additional attorneys. In each of these three counties the legal community was joined by local business leaders in successful fundraising efforts.

Giving Up Her Home Was Not An Option

Harrisburg Mom Wins Fight To Keep Her Home

Her home was her castle and she was going to fight to keep it.

Lurnetta Young is a single mom. She always worked hard. She was a case manager for Mental Health and Mental Retardation and worked a second job so her daughter could go to college. In 2006, she took a first time homebuyer's course and bought her modest home.

She received a stunning blow in 2007 when she was run into by a drunk driver. She has four rods in her back and faces further surgery. Unable to work, she fell behind in her payments. "I was living in a hospital bed in my living room. I worked hard for my house. Giving up was not an option."

She needed help. "I called for an appointment at MidPenn. My attorney was wonderful." Attorney Nancy Datres helped her to apply for an Emergency Homeowners Loan to stop the foreclosure action. The application was denied but they pushed hard for reconsideration and were finally successful.

The foreclosure was stopped and Lurnetta got to keep her home. Her daughter, Azia, graduates from Temple University at the end of the school year with a degree in Finance. "Now she can take care of me," Lurnetta laughs.

Giving a Voice to One in Need

James Farrell Got a New Lease on Life

James came into the MidPenn Pottsville office because of a notice he didn't understand. His visit changed his life.

James Farrell grew up in Schuylkill County in the small town of Hometown. He was born with a serious hearing problem and never learned to speak correctly. He had multiple special needs and was homeless. When his doctor stopped accepting his Medical Assistance card, he was confused. MidPenn paralegal Trish Shilling went to bat for him. She found him another physician and more importantly, looked into his unexpressed needs.

Trish helped him successfully apply for public assistance and connected him with a private attorney who eventually won his SSI Disability case. She helped him get an apartment in public housing and for the first time in years, James has a modest income and a roof over his head. She even helped him get a special phone service, Safe Link. "When James has a problem now, he stops in to see me. He trusts me," Says Trish. "I love my job," she adds. "I can really help people."

Getting Help – Right Now!

Telephone Advice Project Reaches Out – This Time to Touch a Slumlord

MidPenn Attorney Evangeline Wright solved a crisis in Lebanon from her desk in State College.

Mandy Schwartz was excited. She had finally landed a new job. It was only a fast food restaurant but now she could get caught up on her bills. Mandy and her kids went to do some food shopping. She was stunned to return home and find that the landlord had illegally changed her locks. She could hear her little chihuahua barking like mad inside. Her work uniform was also inside, as were all her children's things and necessary medication. What was she to do with her children?

She called the police who wedged the door open enough to let the scared little dog scamper out. When the landlord didn't answer his phone the officers told Mandy that she was on her own. Mandy called MidPenn and through the Telephone Advice Project she was able to talk with an attorney almost immediately. Attorney Evangeline Wright took the call in the MidPenn State College office and called the landlord's lawyer in Lebanon. When he realized that the police could back Mandy up, an agreement was quickly reached to restore access to the apartment. The landlord was not above the law. The Telephone Advice Project is made possible by grants from PA Interest on Lawyer Trust Account Board (IOLTA), United Way of Mifflin-Juniata and the Centre County Community Foundation.

Making Things Right

Father and Girlfriend Try To Trick Mother
Into Giving Up Her Only Child

Rachael Boone had no idea what was in store for her when she and her daughter Rophia (2) moved to Pennsylvania to reunite with her child's father.

When Rachael Boone came to the MidPenn Gettysburg office she was a long way from home and in agony. She was a young deaf woman who was living in a local shelter. She was being denied contact with her young daughter. Mother and father had lived in Massachusetts, where she grew up. Shortly after their daughter was born, father relocated to Adams County, his home area. He began a relationship with another woman but told Rachael that he would break that off.

He convinced Rachael to bring the baby and come live with him in Pennsylvania. But then he served her with a Custody Complaint and persuaded mom to take a brief break to visit a friend. When she complied, he claimed that she had abandoned Rophia and denied her all contact, save for a brief visit at the father's house on Rophia's birthday.

Rachel didn't have any experience with the legal system but she knew this was wrong. MidPenn Attorney John Perry represented Rachael and they were successful in getting Rachael primary custody. Reunited with her child, she returned back home to Massachusetts.

Nicole Faith Berman
September 17, 1983 – December 28, 2010
MidPenn Staff Attorney Victim of Domestic Violence

MidPenn lost one of its own when staff attorney Nicole Berman was tragically murdered at her home in Mechanicsburg. At the time of her death Nicole worked in the MidPenn Chambersburg office. Nicole was a 2009 graduate of the Penn State Dickinson School of Law and began working with MidPenn in May of 2010. While she was in law school she participated in the Family Law Clinic.

During her short time with MidPenn, Nicole demonstrated professionalism and dedication for the work we do as well great compassion for her clients. She was a talented attorney who was not afraid of difficult cases and took each case with passion and enthusiasm. Nicole will be greatly missed by all of us at MidPenn as well as by her loving family and many friends.

President's Message

As time changes, we see many changes in our lives also. The important thing that remains the same is the endeavors of MidPenn Legal Services. At Mid Penn we maintain stability, strength and security. Our clients are able to rely on the fact that we will be here to provide an avenue for justice and fairness.

The sad fact remains that no matter how much finances fluctuate, there will always be low income residents that need to have equal access to justice through legal services. Unfortunately, there will also always be victims of domestic violence that need our assistance in obtaining legal protection. It seems that these needs are always increasing, no matter what the financial status of our country.

MidPenn Legal Services is full of caring people who serve to achieve this mission. Our Board and staff work together with our community as a family. We care for each other, respect each other, support and assist each other in all that we do. All of our Family is active in the community and our community is reflected in our Agency. We strive to have our clients feel this warmth and caring.

Aristotle once said, "The greatest virtues are those which are most useful to other persons." At MidPenn Legal Services, we collect all the virtues in our Family for the sole purpose of helping those who need us. I want to personally thank our MidPenn Family which includes our Board, Staff, Communities we serve and Funders for providing top quality, caring services to our clientele. We look forward to another year of being able to serve our Communities and assist our low income residents with representation, counseling, education, support, - and other varied services that we offer.

VOLUNTEER ATTORNEY ROSTER

These attorneys took cases for free (pro bono) for low-income people who met our income guidelines but MidPenn was unable to serve. Their dedication, generosity and professional commitment vastly expanded the provision of free legal aid to those in need in our communities in the fiscal year 2010-2011.
